exclusive attention to cotton. This county is in a high degree suited to the cultivation of grasses and the raising of stock, and such farming has been found very profitable by those who have engaged in it. A CHRONICLE reporter recently paid a visit to the farm of Mr. R. J. Goostree, three miles from the city. Mr. Gosstree is one of the model stock and grass raisers of Montgomery county, and, as a consequence, one of our most prosperous farmers, on the high road to opulence. About fourteen years ago he purchased three hundred acres of land, half of which lies in Red River bottom. He planted this entire tract in timothy, orchard grass and clover, and devoted his attention to stock raising and stock dealing. He has recently added one hundred and twenty-five acres more to the original purchase. The first purchase of Mr. Goostree was made by a cash payment of half the price. He gave $12,000 for the place and met each

Certificates. From the Hon. Inc. F. House, of Tennessee, I was troubled for about six months with periodical returns of chills and fever, following an attack of malarial fever in September last, I was finally induced by a friend to try Bishop's Ague Antidote, and I have had no return of chills since I used his pills; I regard them as a certain cure.

To L. C. Bishop, Druggist, Washington, D. C

From Neill S. Brown Esq., of Tennessee, Mar. L. C. Bishop, Dear Sir: I take great pleasure in recommending to the public the "Ague Pilis" sold by you. I used them in my family, and they gave relief and effected permanent cure of chills, where all other remedies had failed. They certainly act like a charm, and anyone using them will find a sure specific.

Respectfully,
